Getting care

There are different options to get the care you need based on your situation.

Your primary care provider

We call the main doctor you see a primary care provider, or PCP. This is the doctor you should see for most of your care, like checkups, treatments, vaccinations, minor injuries, and other health concerns. Call your PCP first, even after hours.

Important tip: Annual checkups are important for good health. Make an appointment with your PCP if you have not had a visit in the past year.

Your PCP can also provide care and screenings covered by the Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnosis, and Treatment (EPSDT) benefit. This benefit is available to pregnant women, and children and young adults 20 years old or younger, and who are members of RMHP's regional organization (Regional Accountable Entity - "RAE 1"). With the EPSDT benefit, get access to preventive, dental, mental health, developmental, and specialty services — at no cost.

Urgent care

Urgent care is for non-emergent but serious illness or injuries that need medical care. These can include fevers, flu symptoms, minor cuts, or minor burns.

Emergency Room

Go to the Emergency Room if your condition is life-threatening or your doctor tells you to go. You should go to the Emergency Room for chest pain, trouble breathing, severe allergic reactions, or severe bleeding.

Colorado PEAK

Health First Colorado members have access to Colorado PEAK, which is a quick and easy way to apply for medical, food, and cash assistance programs. Are you moving? You can create an account at co.gov/PEAK and update your contact information. You can also download the Health First Colorado mobile app for easy access to tools to manage your health care.

Mental/Behavioral Health

Behavioral health (BH) is an important part of your overall health. If you have changes in your mood or behavior, or if your alcohol or drug use is impacting your life, you may want to talk to a BH provider. RMHP can help you understand your behavioral health benefits and find a provider that can help you.

Dental health

Dental health can affect your entire body. It's important to take advantage of preventive services, like exams and cleanings every six months. Call DentaQuest at 1-855-225-1729 to learn more about your dental benefit and find a dentist near you, or visit dentaquest.com and select "Members > Colorado > Health First Colorado."

Crisis help

Crisis help is available at no cost to you 24 hours a day. If you're dealing with an emotional issue, having family or relationship problems, or struggling at work or school, free, confidential support is only a phone call away. Call 1-844-493-TALK (8255), or text "TALK" to 38255.
