Important Vaccine

Schedule your flu shot

Everyone over the age of 6 months should get the flu shot every year. It is one of the best ways to protect your family against the flu.

We know that it can be hard to find time in your busy day to get a flu shot. So we have an online tool that makes it easy. It only takes a few minutes to find a location near you. Then you can schedule an appointment for a day and time that works best.

Spend a few minutes now to plan your visit. It can make a big difference in your family's health this fall and winter. To get started, visit myuhc.com/findflushot.

Important Screening

Treating your child's ADHD

Is your child having trouble paying attention in school this fall? Or do they have issues with controlling their actions? They may have attention deficit hyperactivity disorder (ADHD).

UnitedHealthcare covers testing and treatment for ADHD. If your child has ADHD, their provider may suggest behavioral therapy. They may also suggest medication. They will create a plan to help your child feel better. This can be good for the whole family.

Learn more about your benefits for ADHD testing and treatment. Call Member Services at the phone number on Page 4 of this newsletter.

Wellness Visits

Well child visits keep kids healthy

Regular well child visits to your primary care provider (PCP) are important to keep your child well. Kids need regular well child visits at all ages, from babies through teenagers. Well child visits are also called EPSDT (Early and Periodic Screening, Diagnostic and Treatment) visits. These visits are free. Call your doctor now to make an appointment for a well child visit. The doctor can also help when your child is sick.

Well child or EPSDT visits are required for newborns, at 3 to 5 days, by 1 month and at 2, 4, 6, 9, 12, 15, 18, 24 and 30 months. They are also required every year starting at age 3 through age 20. Emergency rooms should only be used for real emergencies. Bring your child's health plan ID card and shot record to every visit. We can help you set up an appointment and transportation to your appointment.

Well child visits may include:

- A physical exam
- Shots or immunizations (Flu season has begun, and there were measles exposures in August in Maricopa County.)
- Testing for and treatment of lead poisoning (It can cause learning problems, hearing loss and brain damage. It can also cause weight loss, crankiness, throwing up, tiredness or abdominal pain.)
- Eye exams and hearing tests
- Advice on healthy food and staying active

- Developmental tests for speech, feeding and physical activity, such as rolling over, crawling and walking (For children with delayed skills, your doctor can refer for therapies to help develop these skills.)
- Questions about your child's health and health history
- Lab tests, such as urine and blood tests

For teenagers and young adults, the doctor may also talk about:

- Self-esteem and good mental health
- Changes in their bodies
- Making good choices and healthy behaviors

- Prevention of sexually transmitted diseases (STDs) and testing (This is a covered benefit.)
- Dangers of smoking, alcohol and other drugs
- Prevention of injury and suicide attempts, bullying, violence and risky sexual behavior
- Birth control (Family planning is a covered benefit.)

Care management and help with chronic disease self-management is provided as well as oral health screening and tuberculosis testing.
